

OWQ Meeting Minutes – Sunday, August 13, 2017

Business

- Sunshine; No new members this week. Dee introduced Lynne Calder for creating the new email process of listserve. This is a new way to send emails to all members. Everyone should have received an email from Lynne explaining this. If you did not receive information from Lynne, please contact her at lynne@mcn.org
- Nancy Lamphear from Sew N Sew retired on Saturday, August 12. A party was held to wish her the best in her new adventures.
- QCNQ: Sandi Smith attended the conference in Shasta to Meet the Teachers. She had a display with information about three of the teachers she thought would be good for our group. The display will be at the meeting in September also.
- The Memorial Quilt for the young ladies Ashley and Amber, with their mother's scarves is complete and was shown at the meeting. Thank you to all who contributed to this special quilt.
- Mary Foster passed out the latest member photo roster.
- Blockette raffle was won by Phoebe Graubard. Sharon handed out instructions for the September blockette, Morning Star

Committee Reports

- Education- Carole Poma
Lynne Pillus Mechanical Quilt Class was simple to complex.
- Special Events – Paula Perelstein and Cindi Joe will Co-chair this committee.

Family Picnic September 24 at noon at Cindi Jo's home.
Hamburgers, hot dogs, games!! Bring the family and your own chairs for a fun day. More to follow at the September meeting.

The Retreat for October will be at Russian Gulch. More information will be available after all details are completed.

Look for exciting changes for our April Tea, as well as changes for the Brown Bag Challenge.

- Quilt Show – Paula Perelstein
Very good responses this year from attendees. Loved Dana Gray, the amount of quilts was excellent, very pleased with show. Next year Soroptimist will Chair the show and OWQ will be the Treasurer.

We will begin working on the Opportunity Quilts for the 2018 show now. Cindi Jo has patterns and instructions for farm animals for the small quilt and Sharon Lau has the information for the larger quilt with 3 different barns.

Sharon Lau asked if the members would like to select a merchant and create something special for their business for the 2018 Quilt Walk. Please think about this, it could be a small block, several blocks, a small quilt.

- Service – Ginny
Instructions will be sent to all members for making pillowcases for Pillowcase Project Sanctuary.

The texture quilts have new information. It should be posted on our website soon.

- Name tag raffle was won by Connie Mitchell
- Show and tell – what talent we have.
