

OWQ Meeting – Sunday, December 10, 2017

1 p.m. Senior Center

Business

Sunshine – Lin Taylor's T-shirt quilt

Dec. 13 and 14 a small group will begin working on the quilt of Lin's husbands t-shirts. The goal is to have it completed by Christmas.

Dee passed around Thank you cards from Grape Vine Quilters for welcoming them to Fort Bragg with homemade cookies and donated quilts for the fire victims in their area.

Nodja delivered 15 quilts to Village Sewing in Santa Rosa to be donated to the fire victims in Sonoma County.

Treasurers Report

Vote on purchase of Stella's quilt donated to the Library.

According to the bylaws of the club, any amount over $50 that is not budgeted must be brought up at a meeting, published in the Newsletter then voted upon at the next meeting. At the November meeting it was discussed, it has appeared in the Newsletter and a vote was presented to the members to pay Stella $200 for her king size, hand quilted, quilt that she is donating to the library for a fund raiser. Approved by members.

Name Tag Raffle won by Miriam

Show & Tell

Gift Exchange

Ugly Xmas wearable contest won by Sharon L.

Fat quarter raffle

December Raffle prize won by Kathy G.

Quilto

It was a Fun Day

Meeting adjourned at 2:53 p.m.