Sunshine

Card to Tracy Newsome on the loss of her mother.

Quilt to Lin Taylor of her husband's t-shirts. She will lend it to us to display at our Quilt show in June.

It was also nice to see Irene back at our meeting after her recent accident.

Dan Hass, Head Librarian attended our meeting to accept the donation of a Quilt to be raffled to help fund the new addition of the library. He will pass the quilt on to the Friends of the Library. Tickets will be on sale at the library $5 a ticket or $10 for 3, beginning Jan. 16 until March 17. He also thanked Carole Poma for her work in getting this donation for the library, the Guild and Stella, who made the quilt. Dan said he loves the quilts that are displayed at the library during the Quilt Show and at Christmas.

We had visitors from Grapevine Quilters from Ukiah, Sharon Burger and Bonnie Austin. They deeply thanked us for the generous donation of 32 quilts. They donated 100 quilts to the fire victims.

They also thanked us for the treats we gave them at their retreat, they loved every bite of them.

Their Opportunity Quilt to be auctioned at their Quilt Show in May was displayed. It is a beautiful Drunkards Path block, tickets are $1 each or $5 for 6.

Treasurers Report

Sharon discussed our Barn Opportunity Quilt and that the tickets will be $5 each or 3 for $10. We will need to make $3000 in ticket sales, if each member sells $20 worth of tickets, we should make our goal.

QGNQ

January is the next meeting in Oroville. Dee and Becky will attend and take our Opportunity Quilts to display.

The next QGNQ is in April in Bend Oregon and will also be "Meet the Teachers". Carole P. will have a meeting with her Committee to discuss who may want to attend.

Marcia Weeks talked to the group about flu season.

So many people have been effected by this latest flu. The best advice is to wipe things down with disinfectants, like phones, computers, door knobs, any surface that is touched by an open hand. The other tip is wash your hands often, soap and water, with friction, in between fingers while singing Happy Birthday! Also if you have the flu, stay home. Try not to hug and spread the flu germs, get a flu shot, if not for you, do it for others.

The Blockette was presented by Paula. A 24 inch Heart block!

Speakers and Workshops have been scheduled.

Speaker for April Tea will be Marjan Kluephel and her workshop, on Seascapes will be on April 9th. Speaker for July 28th meeting will be Lisa McKissick and her workshop on Curve it Up, will be on July 29th.

Hospitality-Dee

The supplies that we carry on inventory are for the monthly meetings. When we have Special Events, it will be that committee's responsibility to get enough items for their event and communicate with the Hospitality Committee.

Special Events-Paula

Retreat in March will be at the Lion's Club.

Annual Tea will be April 8. At the February meeting the Committee will be presenting the changes for the tea and the Brown Bag Challenge.

Service-Ginny

For the month of November and December these items were delivered; 32 pillow cases, 27 pet beds, 28 warm welcome, 6 chaplain, 3 baby hats.

The texture quilts have been put on hold at this time.

Quilt Show-Judy

The meetings for the Quilt Committee are the first Wednesday of the month. The next meeting is February 7, 10 a.m. at Presbyterian Church on Sanderson.

This week an inventory was taken at the barn on supplies. The Committee would like to purchase 2 new quilt racks, aluminum frame, 7x12 with a flat base. At the February Guild meeting the changes for the Quilt Walk will be presented. On March 17 at the Whale Run, we will display the Opportunity Quilt and sell raffle tickets.

Guest Luanne Tutoro presented a possible project for the Guild, "Dress a girl around the World". Dresses are made from a simple pattern for girls all over the world. Ginny Cooper will review the information and organization then present it to the Guild for interest and input.

Meeting started @1:30 p.m.

Adjourned @ 3:18 p.m.
