Quilt Show being readied for June start

Contributed

The 22nd annual Fort Bragg Quilt Show will be held on Saturday, June 23, and Sunday, June 24, at Dana Gray Elementary School.

As part of the preparation, plans are being made for the traditional Fort Bragg Quilt Walk, where participating merchants in the downtown area display quilts throughout the month of June to help advertise the show and to support the art of quilting.

This year brings a new twist to the Quilt Walk. The Ocean Wave Quilters have decided to issue one of their competitive challenges. At their February meeting, members will draw the name of a participating merchant and will then create a quilt that best represents that business.

A panel of judges will determine the winner, and a prize will be awarded. Keep an eye out for some amazing quilts.
