

OWQ Meeting Minutes

July 8, 2018

1:30 p.m.

Business:

- Guests - Debbie, Deb and Kala from Long Valley Quilters in Laytonville visiting and displaying their Opportunity Quilt for their August 25 & 26 show.
New member welcomed, Betty F.
- Sunshine - nothing to report
- Finance - Sharon L.
Dues are due. Sharon passed new membership cards to paid members.
Treasurer's Report was in the newsletter
- Other business -
Request for t-shirt quilt – Connie
Request for mola quilt – Sharon L.
The club agreed to work on these quilts and asked about the cost changed to make them. In the past the requester has paid for the cost of materials and we ask for a donation. It was suggested that we have the requestor sign a liability release when a quilt request is made. More information to follow on quilts.

Committees

- Hospitality – Christie
Christie asked members for donations for the Name tag raffle and the Quarterly raffle.
Name tag keeper box - We now have a name tag box – if you want, you can leave your name tag in it after the meeting so it will be here next time
Name tag raffle won by Kathy G.
- Education – Tina
Tina posted on the board upcoming Quilt Shows.
Lisa McKissick class is July 29 at Sew N Sew, 3 spots still open, contact Tina for more information.
Raffle of last month's blockettes won by Sharon L.
Presented this month's blockette – Daisy, name of the block is Nova.
- Service - Grace
Sew Sunday to become Sew/Service Sunday – you can still bring whatever project you want to work on, but we will also designate a service project that those who want to can participate in. For example, one might be making pillowcases, another might be making dresses for dress a girl. At these project meetings we would need not only sewers, but any activity that would help with the project. This will start in September.

Ginny reported that she mailed 25 of the "Dress a Girl" dresses to Sacramento.

- Special Events – Paula

QGNQ, meeting in Fort Bragg on July 28, Sign-up sheet passed around for helping with set up and clean up for the meeting. Also need help with someone to pick up and return key, setting up book table, challenge quilts, food, display challenge quilts and sell packets. Contact Paula if you have any questions

August 5 The City of Fort Bragg is having an all-day Birthday Celebration. There are vendor opportunities for OWA to set up a booth. Paula asked for volunteers who may like to be involved in this event.

Judges comment from show on the Barn Quilt was; Great assortment of blocks in this Barn Quilt. Star sashing adds to the overall design. Quilted roosters support the theme. Binding is well done. 3rd place ribbon. The comments on the Farm Critters was; Whimsical. Machine applique is well done. Fabrics are well chosen. 2nd place ribbon.....YEA for us.

Pattern for 2019 Quilt Show Opportunity quilts will selected by patterns presented by members, an email to follow.

Wrap up meeting, July 11, Presbyterian Church, 10 a.m.

Meeting adjourned at 4 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Sherry Waggoner, OWQ Guild Secretary.
