November 2018

Message from the President – Cindi Jo

Hi, All! There was a lot of sewing, chatting, laughing, and eating done at the quilting retreat. More Dress-A-Girl dresses getting finished and a few “tah-dahs” to see and be inspired by. If you haven’t had a chance to attend the OWQ retreats, mark the next one (March 24, 2019) on your calendar. Bring a work in progress, or just stop by and see what’s up. We hope to see you there!

Club Historian – Mary F

The retreat was so fun. If you have any retreat pictures to share, please email them to me so I can include them in the slide show on our website. Also, I'd love to receive your club biography. I'll have blank copies of the biography form at the next general meeting or it is posted on our website. And don't forget about our club's photo directory. Email me a pic of yourself or I can snap a shot of you at the next meeting. Remember: this project and the biography are both on a voluntary basis and neither will be posted on the website. Thanks!

Service Committee - Grace, Chair

- Judy - I took 7 quilts to the hospital in Oct. Still need some more.
- Sharon L. Reports no chaplain quilts this month. Took 24 quilts to Redding guild at the Quilt Guilds of the North Quarter meeting Saturday for Carr fire families.
- Mary - I delivered 8 pet beds to The Ark Thrift Store yesterday. Will try to deliver the remaining 7 pet beds to Second Chance at the Food Bank.

Hospitality Committee - Christie, Chair

I will bring the brown bags in case any of you wish to buy one and join the fun of making something out of mystery fabric! Remember the challenge is to add a spark from your stash and create something original. See you at the meeting. Brown Bags are $5.

Lonna, thanks for doing the Newsletter all these years! And now happy quilting.

Quilt Guilds of the North Quarter Meeting - Sharon L

I attended the QGNQ meeting in Ord Bend on Saturday, October 27. (Don't believe Google Maps when they say it is a 3.5 hour drive - try 4.5!) This was a "Meet the Teachers" event; 6 teachers presented. I will be sharing the information about the teachers with Tina, who chairs our Education committee, so she can share it with her committee members. I also took 24 quilts you all made for the Carr fire families in Redding. When I arrived with my wagon full of quilts, I located one of the Redding folks, who introduced me to two women, Beej and Pam, who were there to present their class information. It turns out both lost their homes in the Carr fire. The woman from Redding and I both said, "Please choose a quilt!" So Beej and Pam each chose one of your beautiful quilts - and there were tears! Having witnessed that, I want to tell all of you that your quilts are so special and mean so much to the people who receive them. Thank you! The next QGNQ meeting will be on Saturday, January 26th in Colusa; if you would like to represent OWQ there, please let Paula P. know.

Small Opportunity Quilt, 2018 – Carole P

Any individuals who took a block package for the small opportunity quilt please get your blocks into Carole Poma as soon as possible. Carole has only receive 8 of the 15 packages handed out as of Sunday 10/28/18.

A special "Thank you" to everyone who completed a block and has handed it in.
