

OWQ General Meeting Minutes
Redwood Coast Senior Center
3/10/19
1:30 p.m.

Guest – Guest Speaker Lisa McKissick and her mother – also Vivian and Linda who were invited by Pam S.

Sunshine – No sunshine, except outside today.

$1,000 Library Club – The Guild received a letter from the Library Board thanking us for our contribution of $1,577 for the library expansion. Sandi S. reported that she belongs to the Lion's Club and she gave this information to the club so now they are going to join the $1,000 Library Club.

Finance – Sharon L.
Financial information was in the monthly Newsletter.

Service – Grace V.
Information about donated items were in the monthly Newsletter.

Quilt Show – Sherry
At the next meeting she will ask the Quilt Show Committee members to report on the areas they are responsible for.
Sharon G. will be displaying the large opportunity quilt to sell raffle tickets inside the Company Store on Saturday, March 16th from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Sharon L. has the new forms on the website for the quilts entered for the Quilt Walk.

Opportunity Quilts
Becky B. has been collecting fabric and will be working on the quilt at the retreat next week.
Sharon L. showed the FOX blocks collected at the meeting, very cute!

Hospitality – Christie D.
Name Tag Raffle won by Sherry W. and Sandi S.
The fantastic Quarterly Raffle prize was won by Tina P.

Historian – Mary F.
The bio form was put on the website and she has received 9 new bio's.

Special Events – Paula P.

Paula passed around the sign-up sheet for the March 20-23 Retreat. There is a meeting at Sew n' Sew on Wednesday March 13 @ 5:30 p.m. to discuss the Annual Tea on April 28th. Paula could use donations for the Raffle Basket, please contact Paula or drop items at Sew n' Sew. Paula also reported that the due date for the Brown Bag Challenge items is April 14th. Paula ask members to consider being the Chair for the Special Events Committee for the next years Board.

Education – Tina P.

The Schoolhouse Tour was a great success, fun and many can't wait until next year's tour. There are still openings for the class on April 29th with Lisa Thorpe. Please contact Tina if you are interested.

Blockette raffle won by Shirley P.

Blockette for March was selected, and packets made by Evelyn H. and presented by Cindi. There was some confusion on making either a 6 inch or 12-inch block so Cindi will contact Evelyn and update the members, she will also define the colors selected for the donation (second block) quilt.

Program – Guest Speaker

Lisa McKissick showed quilts she has made, and the tools used to make them. It was very interesting and lovely quilts to view. Lisa showed rulers that can be used for more than just one quilt and other handy tools to sell. Lisa was humorous, intergenic, knowledgeable and a pleasure to have as a guest speaker.

Meeting adjourned @ 3:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Sherry Waggoner, OWQ Guild Secretary.