

OWQ Meeting Minutes
Redwood Coast Senior Center
4-14-19 1:30 – 3:20 p.m.

Guest – No guest this week.

Sunshine – Marcia W. thanked the members for the card sent regarding her mother's stay in the hospital. Marcia also said she was thanked again from Julie M. about the quilt that was given to her by the guild.

Dee G. reported that she had hear from Nit and she is doing well in Nevada and has joined a Quilt Club.

Nodja J. reported that her mother is now residing at an assisted living facility.

Shirley P. said they had a visitor from a member Yola S. Yola has not been to a meeting due to lack of transportation but was able to arrange transportation for the hand quilting group.

Finance – Sharon L.

The Guild received a $1,000 donation for the beautiful work done on the Mola Quilt. The recipient was very excited and appreciative of the piecing, layout and extraordinary hand quilting (done by Dee G.).

Service – Grace V.

10 pet beds were delivered by Mary F. for First Friday.

Quilt Show – Sherry W.

The Quilt Show is fast approaching. Committee members reports below. Next meeting is Wed. May 1, 10 a.m. First Presbyterian Church.

a. Sharon R. – The large Opportunity Quilt is currently being displayed at Bolt for the month of April. The second Monday in May, Sharon will be at Down Home Foods selling raffle tickets and at the Caspar Community Center Flea Market on May 26, 9 a.m.–2 p.m.

b. Becky B. reported that the large Opportunity Quilt for 2020 is 70% completed with the piecing.

c. Sharon L. (reporting for Daisy W.) reported that we are still missing Fox blocks that were passed out to members previously. Please contact Sharon if you have a block that you are going to complete or if you do not want to complete the block.

d. Sharon L. reviewed information concerning the Quilt Walk.

Merchant Quilts: Most merchants can take a 20" X 20" quilt.

We will need about 50 quilts.

Library Quilts: The Library will need 3 large quilts, 60" X 60" with sleeve and they can also hang 10-12 small quilts.

Hospital Quilts: The Hospital will need 9-10 large quilts, with sleeve. All quilts must have your name and the name of the quilt sewn or written onto a fabric label sewn to the quilt back (or written on the quilt back). Please contact Sharon for detailed information or review 2019 Quilt Walk Information Form on our website.

e. Volunteer Sign Up information

Sharon R. passed around the volunteer sign up sheet for the show.

Sharon L. will select the scribes for the quilt judging.

Becky B. will need volunteers for the pick-up/set up and tear down of the quilt racks.

f. Mary F. has created an information poster with the history of our Quilt Shows which was organized by Nancy H. This poster is a wonderful reflection of the Quilt Shows from 1996 to present and will be posted at the 2019 Quilt Show. Information is still needed for the 1996 or 2003 shows, please contact Mary F. or Nancy H.

Hospitality – Christie D.

Name tag raffle was won by Jeanne Kinney

Historian – Mary F.

Pictures from the retreat are posted on our webpage.

The poster for the History of the Quilt Shows is posted on our webpage for viewing.

Mary reported regretfully that she will be stepping down as the Club Historian and urged members to consider this position for the next year. It's a fun position, very important, and she will be available for help for the next Club Historian.

Special Events – Paula P.

The Annual Tea is April 28. Those who volunteered to be a table hostess, please be at the Senior Center on Saturday, April 27, from 10 a.m. to noon for set up of the room and tables. Members bringing food should deliver the food between 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. (no food excepted after 12:30 p.m.). Lisa Thorpe will be out guest speaker and presenting a trunk show at 1 p.m. Tea following the presentation.

Education – Tina P.

Sharon L. reporting for Tina. Class reminder, Lisa Thorpe class at Sew n' Sew on Monday, April 29. Class is still open for a class fee of $90.

Blockette Raffle won by Sharon L.

Presentation for May block by Kathy G., paper piecing, block name is Tesselcats.

Misc.

Cindi Jo W. – asked members to consider volunteering for the next year's (July to June) officers of the club, including Board Members and Committee Chairs. It's important and good for the club to have new participants, you learn new skills, have fun and keep busy!

Cindi Jo read an email she received from the Cancer Research Center that is moving from Mendocino to Fort Bragg and would like our participation in displaying quilts in their new facility. Nodja volunteered to contact and chair the project and report her information. It was discussed and agreed that this project should be part of the Service Committee.

Break

Show and Tell

Wow.....how amazing this group is!!!!!!

38 Members in attendance.

Respectfully submitted by Sherry W., Guild Secretary.