President's Message – Carole P.

Happy Holidays!

I hope everyone has recovered from the power outage of last month and that each of you has come up with a way to get through the next one. Stock up on your dry goods, get fuel for your generator, assure you have wood for your fireplace, keep your car's gas tank filled and have a good book to read. These are things we all need to do. I have one more, make sure you have your phone number updated with OWQ's. When I met with the individuals from the Paradise quilt guild, one of the things that helped some of their members get through was their phone tree. Just having someone to say "Hi, how are you doing" brought individuals comfort.

Something we should think about developing is a phone tree for OWQ members. This would allow us to check on each other to be sure we are all well and not in need of assistance. A phone tree has many branches, and each individual is only responsible for calling 1 or 2 members.

We have many members who live alone; some have family members who travel a lot, so they are often by themselves. Some members live out of town and must drive to get to services. Just a call to let someone know they are thought of and someone cares that they are safe. This is all that is needed, one call. If this is something that appeals to you please let me know, so we can get a phone tree started.

I hope to see all of you at the Holiday party on December 8.

This is such a busy time of year. Please stay safe and enjoy the cooler weather with family and friends during these special holidays.

Joke for the month:

Three women die in a car crash.

They go to an orientation in heaven and are asked, "When you're lying in the casket and friends and family members are mourning, what would you like to hear them say about you?"

The first woman says, "I'd like to hear them say that I was a great quilter of my time, and a great family woman."

The second woman says, "I'd like to hear that I was a wonderful wife and school teacher who made a huge difference in children's lives."

The last woman says, "I'd like to hear them say.... Look at her! She's moving!"

Respectfully, Carole Poma, OWQ President, 2019-2020

Service Committee – Grace V.

Judy W. gave away 5 warm welcome quilts and she needs more.

Sharon L. did not give away any chaplain quilts and doesn't need any more at this time. She also asked the Moonlight Quilters of Sonoma County to let us know if they need quilts for fire victims.

Cindi W. gave 14 cat beds to Second Chance Rescue and can probably use more.

Nancy L. gave a baby quilt to Amy's granddaughter.

On Sew Sunday we made 45 pillowcases which will be given out next month.

Thanks to all who participated!

Hospitality – Tina P.

Our quarterly raffle is here. Not only is it time for our annual holiday party, one lucky winner will go home with a "stack" of surprises!! Buy your tickets for a chance to win. Tickets are $1.00 each, 6 for $5.00, or 7 feet for $20.00 (OMG that's 34 tickets). Also, there will be two name tag prizes instead of one, so remember to wear your name tag.

I won't bore with all the numbers of the OWQ apparel survey, the clear winner was a long sleeve shirt in med-dark blue. More details to follow. Happy Holidays, Tina Perry

Special Events – Cindi Jo W.

Holiday party – Please remember that you do not have to participate in these activities, they are meant for fun and fellowship and not to add stress to your busy holidays.

Please come and enjoy the afternoon!

For those of you that want to join in all the gifty fun; here's the checklist for the Holiday party at our next meeting (choose one, two, all, or no activities):

A handmade ornament to exchange (find the patterns at Sew 'N Sew)

A quilt related gift worth $10-$15 (Just get something you'd love to receive!) for the gift exchange game

A yummy dish to share

Socks, mittens, gloves, scarves-Any warm item to donate to the Fort Bragg Food Bank

The Quilters will have their annual La Playa holiday lunch on Friday, December 13th at 1pm. Please email me if you would like to attend. I would like to have an idea of an attendance number by Monday, December 2nd so I can make the reservation. This is always a fun event and we are looking forward to it. Please let me know if you have any questions at earlon@aol.com.
