President's Message – Carole P.

It's January, I hope everyone had a happy holiday season and were able to spend time with family and friends. For some of us January is the quietest time of the year. It is time to finish up old projects and assess the projects we want to complete in the coming year. For Christmas my daughter gave me a project journal to document all my sewing projects. In it I can document what challenges I faced on each project, what worked and what did not work, provide a picture of each completed project. This will also provide something for my girls to see what projects their mother enjoyed working on. This is something I have never done before, so we will see how the New Year goes for journaling my quilting journey.

In 2020 OWQ's have some exceptional teachers lined up to teach here on the Coast. Kathy (OWQ's Education Chair) has been working hard to schedule these teachers. She has selected individuals who should provide us with some new skills, ideas or bring back to life something we may have forgotten. I am excited for 2020; it should be a good year.

Joke for the month:

2020
VISION

Respectfully, Carole Poma, OWQ President, 2019-2020

Service Committee – Grace V.

Sharon L. delivered 10 Warm Welcome Quilts and 9 Chaplain Quilts.

Grace V. delivered 48 pillowcases -12 each to Safe Passage, Project Sanctuary, Hospitality House, and Foster Children of Mendocino County.

Special Events – Cindi Jo W.

Our next special event is the Luncheon on Sunday, February 23rd with guest speaker Laura Fogg. The brown bag challenge projects are due on Tuesday, February 18th at Sew n Sew. They will be displayed at the luncheon and voted on by the attendees to win cash prizes. There will be 2 or 3 raffle baskets and of course quilt raffle tickets too. We'd like to decorate the tables with your quilted table-runners. Please bring them to the February general meeting. Colors, seasons, and sizes don't matter. Members may be charged approximately $5 to attend, and guests would be charged a bit more.

Education – Kathy G.

Sign-ups are open for Kerrie Hershey's Invisible Appliqué class to be held Saturday, Feb. 22, 2020 from 10am to 4pm at the Senior Center. Workshop fee is $30.

Laura Fogg will be the featured speaker at our Luncheon on Feb. 23, 2020. We may try to schedule her for a workshop in the coming year if there is interest following the trunk show Feb. 23. Great landscapes!

May, June, July, August, and Sept. are available for Blockette of the Month. Please consider presenting. Thanks to Sharon L. for presenting the BOM January 12, 2020.

Quilt Show – Judy W.

Holidays are over and I hope everyone had a joyous season with family and friends as did I. It is time to get back to work and our first meeting of the year for the Quilt Show committee will be at 10 AM on Wed. Jan. 8 at the Presbyterian Church. We will be planning when to start advertising as well as what we all want to do with the Quilt Walk. For members not on the committee, please think about taking a little of your time to join us and bring your ideas.

Tie Dye Tribute Challenge – Linda W.

In the fall local tie dye artist Theo Wojack died. He and his wife Carolyn Glubok owned the Tie Dye Heaven, a source of many lovely dyed garments and other items.

I have thirteen 25"x28" dyed panels done by Theo and would like to share them with friends in an informal challenge. You make whatever you'd like, the only requirements are to use the fabric on the front or outside of your challenge project and to complete it by January 2021. We'll discuss our options for displaying our creations at that time. I will have the panels at the January meeting, or you may contact me at 707-272-2639 (text friendly). Note that the 2021 quilt show has an ocean-based theme and some of these tie dyes would go nicely with that.

Paula P.

Sew n Sew is moving along with repairs. We now have a roof and the back wall has been framed in. Now that we are closed to the weather, sheet rocking and interior work can be done. We are hoping to re- open in 2 to 3 weeks!

Happy Birthday
