The guild did a wonderful job with a lovely salad and dessert bar — all made and presented by guild members.

Several guilds mention speakers who they have invited and were well received. I may get the spelling wrong but here goes: Barb Ismire, Julia Curry (scrappy and judge and she does not charge travel), Linda Ballard, and Margie McGraw.

The Red Bluff guild has published a cookbook and will be holding a flea market.

There was much discussion around the California Heritage Museum and the project which is being revived and headed by southern California.

There was also mention of a new person leading the SC liability area, a rate increase, and new forms. So, heads up to our treasurer.

The guest speaker was Melissa Milligan of Melissa and Mom. She had a trunk show and patterns for sale.

The following opportunity quilts were displayed:

Mountain Quilt Quilters

Red Bluff Quilters

Sutter Butte Quilters

Note: it is a pineapple pattern!
