January 2023 Newsletter

President's Message

Wow! Can you believe it? 2023 is almost here!

Many of us at this time of year do a bit of reflection on the past year. Did I achieve all of my goals? Am I proud of what I accomplished in 2022? Can I forgive myself for the goals I missed?

Some may set New Year's Resolutions, but I always seemed to fail at those. While I was driving back to Mendocino on December 26th, I had plenty of time to think about 2023.

I really wasn't looking for a Word for the year, but Gratitude kept coming into my mind. Well, I guess that it is. Gratitude. And Perspective helps too.

I spent some time with my family over the Holidays as so many do, and I am so grateful. The grandkids hugs when I left brought me to tears. They were so heartfelt, I was overwhelmed.

Besides my family, what am I grateful for? I am grateful for all of you! Your friendship and creativity bring so much joy to my life. You are all an inspiration to me. You have been a warm and supportive group for not only me, but our community. Your outreach is so contagious and wonderful.

May 2023 bring you joy and wonder for the New Year!

Block of the Month

January 2023-Daisy

If you made a November Block of the Month.....The Chicken.....don't forget to bring it to the January 6th General meeting for the drawing.

Quilt Walk – Sherry W.

Five months until the Quilt Walk, woohoo! If you have any quilts to lend please drop them off at Sew n Sew or contact me, please and thank you.

Lonna O.

The Soroptimists of Fort Bragg want to thank you for working with us to provide Christmas pillowcases to the Coast's Foster Children. We were able to fill your 16 beautiful pillow cases with holiday gifts. The Social Services folks were thrilled and very grateful. And the manager at the Dollar store where I obtained several of the items was so impressed with what we were doing he donated a box filled with Barbie Dolls and another box with toy cars, yo-yos and Craft items! We appreciate your help with this program. Have a wonderful New Year.

Posted by a quilter who has priorities

I'm posting this with a heavy heart.

As much as I love my quilting, the fabrics, the jelly rolls, patterns and the needle minders and everything that goes into it, this is simply taking up too much of my time. I am struggling to keep up with the everyday basics of life - cooking and housework, so something has to give. I will therefore be giving away my collection.

Below is a list of what's available. Serious inquiries only please, and don't insult me with low offers.

Thanks for reading and understanding.

1. Dustpan and broom
2. Sponges
3. Leaf blower
4. Mop and buckets
5. Lawn mower
6. Vacuum
7. Rakes (multiple)
8. Laundry detergent
9. Hand tools
10. Yard tools

I saw this SINGER machine at a garage sale and just had to buy it. Turns out it needed work so took it to "In Stitches" in Dixon and spent $50 to get it fixed and all checked out. It works but I need another machine like I need a hole in my head. I looked it up and believe it is from the fifties. It has a case. Would like to sell for $80. Can bring up if anyone interested. Please contact me at susanhall516@comcast.net
