

Ocean Wave Quilters

General Meeting

March 10, 2024

Senior Center

Minutes: The motion was made to accept the minutes as corrected by Carol P seconded by Martin. Motion carried Treasurer's Report: The report is in the newsletter. There was nothing to add to the report.

Committees:

Communication: Susan B. Said that the newsletter is on the website and encouraged everyone to read it as it has a lot of valuable information. Registrations for the Quilt show will be live on April 1st. Information about a group dedicated to Wearable Art and Quilting was sent to the Guild. She is looking for the Quilt walk program that has been used for past shows. Daisy gave Susan a flash drive that should have it on it. The Membership list has been updated.

Hospitality: A card from Sandi B was read. She has moved to Berkley.

New member Chris was in attendance as well as Marilyn who is a member living in Eureka.

The April Luncheon to be held on April 28th was discussed, Members may bring guests. The fee for guests will be $10.00. A presentation by Jeri Kennedy will be at this event.

The winner of the block of the month drawing was Jenni C.

Connie won the Name tag drawing.

Food Chairs: Shirlee P. said she will be buying supplies for the table for next time.

Service: Grace Report given by Sharon G. Ten Warm Welcome and 10 pet Beds were given in Feb. Seven quilts were given to the infusion center. A patient of the infusion center expressed her gratitude for the quilt she received. A quilt of Valor was created and given to a veteran who had asked for one by Daisy.

Education:

Block of the Month:

Daisy presented the March Block demonstration. It is a Missouri Star Pattern called Ring of Fire. She is supplying the white (pick up at Sew-n-Sew) and would like batik fabrics used.

Martin took the Opportunity Quilt to the Lady of the Lake meeting and sold $80. In tickets.

Tip of the Month.: Bobbi's tip was a handout about a craft kit from Missouri Star Company. Turn your fabric stash into Art with these no-sew foam quilt boards by just tucking the fabric into the precut grooves. She showed several cute dolls created in this manner as well.

Special Events: New dates for the retreat to be held in March are March 21-24. Get ahold of Nadeen if you want to stay at the campground. There was a count of those intending to go.

The challenge quilt is due at the end of May and will be displayed at Sew-n-Sew during June to be voted on by community members.

Newsletter: Linda M. reminds the members that Articles are due on the last Tues of the Month. She could use some help with content.

Quilt Show Report: Quilt show walk could use a few more small quilts.

A photographer is needed to document the show.

A chairperson for next year's show is needed.

Sharon G. showed the block for next year's opportunity quilt and handed out kits at the break.

The motion made at the Jan. meeting was voted on and carried. New Frames will be purchased.

The raffle Basket was won by Sherri L.

New Business: The round-robin quilt discussed last month will begin in July.

Ocean Wave Quilter's Guild will host QGNG in October.

Susan C. reported on the cost of various venues for the Quarterly meeting that the guild will host. She and Catherine S. are chairing the event.

Respectfully submitted by Susan Collins
