PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hope everyone is keeping cool in the warm weather we have been experiencing. It sure has brought many visitors from inland.

The new board has been busy planning events for the coming year, and it sounds like a fun year ahead of us.

The first event is the BBQ on Aug 25th, at 27030 North Highway 1 in Inglenook, about 7 miles north of Fort Bragg City. The event should start about noon and we have lots of fun things planned. I hope to see everyone there. If you have not already signed up, please do so at the August 11th, general meeting.

If you have any ideas on classes, events or just a friendly "get together" please let the board know. We are open for any suggestions. New ideas are always welcome.

Regards,

*Carole Poma
2024-2025 OWQ President

Please let me know what you are interested in this year either as a workshop or a lecture. Also, if you have a teacher you. The current plan is to have a lecture during our appreciation lunch followed by a workshop the next day.

I am currently looking at the teachers who are part of the QGNQ "Meet the Teachers" as well as those associated with Northern California Quilt Council.

I am only looking at those who do in-person teaching, as many only do online teaching.
