April 13, 2025

Coast Senior Center

The meeting was called to order by President Carole Pomo.

There were no new members or visitors.

Minutes: It was moved by Sharon L. and seconded by Linda W. to approve the minutes of the March 9th meeting as presented. Motion carried.

Finance: The Treasurer's report can be found in the Newsletter. It was moved by Sharon G. and seconded by Shari L. to approve the Financial report as presented. Motion carried.

Special event: The Round Robins quilt projects were shared by Sharon L., Shari L., Sharon G., Chris H. Dee G.'s group, Nancy, Elizebeth F., Paula P.'s group, Carole P., Ronnie, Kathy, and KathyMc. Wow, what a nice variety of work by these groups.

The Spring luncheon will be on April 27th. Catered by Los G. Members to bring deserts.

Pat Durbin's class is on April 28th. Sharon L. has kits for the class.

Tip of the month: Connie's tip was to not leave your foot pedal on the floor because moisture can get into them causing problems.

Communication: Shari L. has sent out an email with a new Photo gallery of members, a new roster of members, and a calendar for the rest of the term.

Please let her know if there are any corrections.

Susan B. put a timeline of coming events on the wall. She went over it with the members. It is all covered in the calendar sent by Shari L. as well.

Quilts for the Quilt walk are to be Sew-n-Sew by May 9.

On May 12 a group will meet at Sew-n-Sew to decide which quilts go to which businesses. They will be distributed on May 13. Businesses are to display them by May 23. The deadline for sponsors is May 15th.

Chris H. provided the instructions for the next step in the mystery quilt to those members who are participating in the project.

Nadine gave a shout-out to Shari for all the work she has done keeping everyone informed.

Linda W. informed the group of a memorial for Stella Regalia to be held on April 22 at 4 p.m. on the deck of the Beach Comber Motel. The family would like a head count so they know how many to expect.

Name Tag Drawing: Jeanie K. was the winner.

Quilt show: Carole P. passed around a volunteer sign-up sheet.

Sharon G. showed the beginnings of the raffle quilt for 2026. She asked for donations to help cover the cost.

$90 was raised by selling raffle tickets at Harvest on April 5th. The next selling event will be at Preston Hall in Mendocino on May 3rd during Kelly House's Murder She Wrote Event.

Registration is open online for Quilts for the Quilt Show. Payment will be by check.

Service: Grace reported that 12 community, 14 Warm welcome, and 17 pet beds were given this month. Kathy G. will be assuming this position next term.

Show and Tell: Members had many beautiful works to share.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:45 by President Carole P.
