Following the pledge, fines, happy dollars and thoughts for the day we had a short performance of a scene from the play Mr. Green, done by Pam Allan, Gus Mayono and Bob Cohen of the Mendocino Theater. Pam spoke to the coming program of the Theater, including the present run of Mr. Green, which will end on May 29, and upcoming plays including Lockdown, a student play, which will be from June 23 to 26, followed by The Moors, July 21, in a word, September 8, and native Gardens, November 3.

At the end of the meeting, Susan suggested we attend the May 20 performance as a club and said she would call the Theater to see how many tickets we might be able to get.
