16mm film projection with live music and poetry

Film: Adele Horne

Cello improvisation: Marcia Sloane

Poetry: Devreaux Baker, Eve Luckring

Understory is a 16mm film exploration of the redwood forest floor. (30 min.)

Filmed in extreme closeup, in short bursts, the film gives the feeling of exploring the forest floor on hands and knees, blinking at the wonders illuminated by the shifting light. Some of the film is processed with a homemade eco-developer made from the bark of a fallen redwood tree.

Marcia Sloane will perform live cello improvisation to accompany the film.

Devreaux Baker and Eve Luckring will read poems reflecting on the forest and environs.
